

I and my family are listeners of K-LOVE, carried on an FM translator. This is the only station we allow our children to listen to unsupervised. If we are unable to receive this station due to LPFM being given priority there is no local alternative for family friendly programming.